

CPS HR Consulting Presented with Lenny Award for Best External Training Program

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – Oct. 3, 2017 – CPS HR Consulting recently received a Lenny Award for best external training program at the 2017 Litmos Conference for its more than 30 years of experience in human resources service and unparalleled expertise and strategic focus in the public sector. This award is presented to an organization that has rolled out a customer and/or partner training program to drive learning in their external audience.

“We are proud to have received such a prestigious award,” said Jerry Greenwell, CEO, CPS HR Consulting. “Our team puts a lot of emphasis and hard work toward helping public agencies retain and develop the best employees.”

The CPS HR Training Center offers programs and courses for staff and leaders at all levels who serve public sector agencies. The more than 150-course portfolio includes classes in communication, leadership, team development, basic supervision and personal development – to name a few. With more than 100 state and local government agencies sending students to CPS HR training classes, the training center conducted more than 1,400 classes with thousands of attendees in 2016 alone.
