CPS HR Consulting Participates in Public Service Recognition Week Government Agency Hosts Twitter Giveaway to Thank Public Sector Employees

SACRAMENTO, Calif. – April 27, 2016 – For more than 30 years, the Public Employees Roundtable (PER) has hosted its annual Public Service Recognition Week \(PSRW\) to recognize the more than 17 million men and women who serve our nation as federal, state, county and local government employees. As a public sector-focused human resources consulting firm, CPS HR Consulting will participate this year by thanking its clients and employees as well as encouraging others to do the same.

“On a day-to-day basis, CPS HR’s employees see the various challenges that face public servants,” said Jerry Greenwell, CEO of CPS HR. “For us to take one week out of the year to say ‘thank you for your hard work’ isn’t enough, but it is a start.”

CPS HR will host a giveaway on Twitter with the goal of raising awareness and driving engagement of PSRW.

To participate, users should tweet to @cpshr with the hashtag #PSRWcpshr expressing their gratitude for public servants. At the end of the week one random participant will receive a $100 Visa gift card. Tweets can either thank entire departments, or specific individuals. Some example tweets are:

- .@cpshr - I want to thank @SacFirePIO and @SacPolice for keeping my community safe. #PSRWcpshr
- Thank you, Rebecca and Flint from @CityofSacParks for your exceptional service this week! @cpshr #PSRWcpshr

“We want everyone to participate in thanking our public servants this week,” Greenwell said. “Taking a moment out of your day to express appreciation and say ‘thank you’ can mean so much. We can’t wait to see the responses!”
